Troops Again Shooting and Filling Prisons in Warsaw.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Sept. 4.—A boy while being pursued by soldiers to-day jumped into the Vistula River and was killed while trying to escape by swimming.

The troops killed four other persons and made wholesale arrests in different parts of the city during the night.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 4.—The situation in the Shusha, Jevanah and other districts of Southern Caucasus, where Russian-Armenian hostilities are in full swing, has grown so serious that the Viceroy has superseded Gen. Godechamps, Governor-General of Elizabetopol Province, by Gen. Bauer, whose name was coupled with that of Gen. Alkhanoff in connection with the strong methods by which order was restored in the Caucasus after the revolt of last winter.

While Parliament was in session attention was repeatedly called to Gen. Bauer's harshness by the members from the Caucasus.

News was received to-day that the Armenians recently burned eight Tartar villages and a large Tartar factory in this region.

The girl who murdered Gen. M. N. and who had been sentenced to death, has been identified as Zinaida Koshkova, a daughter of a Russian commissar in the army, a former and a member of the "Flying Group" of the revolutionaries.

The present activity of the revolutionaries, since from territory crimes, directed principally to fomenting trouble in the country districts in the hope of drawing troops there so as to give revolutionary "dubious" fighting legions a better chance of coping with the garrisons of the large towns in case of a M. Zinovief, Governor-General of St. Petersburg province, has sent a circular to all subordinate authorities warning them of the plan directing them to take measures to arrest two hundred agitators who are coming here to urge the revolution of land, and instructing them not to permit the regulations providing for the use of armed force against revolutionary meetings to become a dead letter.

Three hundred revolutionaries were expected from the Caucasus, and among them many persons connected with the local press.

HE CAUSES ARREST OF FORMER FIANCEE

William Beldner, Who Would Not Buy Ice Cream, Accuses
Miss Annie Lang.

William Beldner, the swim who won fame by causing a break in his engagement when he refused to buy his fiancée a plate of ice-cream, today appeared in the First Criminal Court of Jersey City to charge her with petit larceny. She is Annie Lang, a comely young woman of twenty-two, who lives at No. 519 Grove street. The economical defendant charges that she stole a bolt of cloth that her mother had sent him from Austria to be made into his wedding clothes. But, Beldner announces, he won't marry her now, so perhaps if she took it Annie thought he hadn't any use for the imported cloth.

From all accounts, Beldner in a small way is a sort of Jersey corporation of a male love trust. Annie has said that she added $250 of her capital to his assets of the late summer. A small, stocky and easily stout at No. 412 Grove street. They were engaged to be married then and the bill of sale was made out to her. Later they quarreled and Annie said he "busted her from the store." Then followed a reconciliation on Aug. 20 and Beldner's refusal to celebrate in the time-honored way by digging up the price of ice cream.

Annie became so angry at this that she gave him back his diamond engagement ring. Another reconciliation came last week and Annie asked that the ring be given back to her.

"I sold the ring," she declares he told her. "What's the use of having your money, tied up in diamonds? I give you a ring when we're married. You ring's enough."

Annie once more broke off with Beldner, for the infuriated man never, never could marry a supercilious tight-wad. But before all this, the young man had written her mother in Austria that she was about to marry a fine young man. Her mother, however, happened to be in the little shop in Jersey City, a bolt of Austrian broadcloth for her prospective son-in-law's wedding suit. And now Beldner's mother, because he charges that Annie entered the shop while he was out and took the cloth. The case was put over to Sept. 7, and Annie declares she will take legal steps for possession of her share of the shop.

DEATH FOUND NEAR JAMAICA

Body of Italian Stabbed to Death Found Near Jamaica.

The body of an Italian stabbed to death was found today in Van Sicklen's Woods, on Rockaway avenue, Jamaica. Circumstances indicate to the police that the man was the victim of a Black Hand or Mafia plot, and was forced to that lonely spot early last evening and deliberately murdered.

Waiter Johnson, a negro, started to drive his ash wagon through the winding and little used road in the woods to-day. Sixty feet from Rockaway avenue he saw the underbrush had been trampled down a few feet away from the road on which he was driving. Stopping his horse he walked over to the spot. There he found the body of the slain man. He had been stabbed in the chest and in the back of the neck. His hands were also cut, indicating, with the trampled underbrush, that the man had made a hard struggle.

There was nothing by which the victim could be immediately identified, but the police found in the man's pockets two pay checks which led them to believe he had been employed by the Brooklyn Heights Railroad.

He also had a card giving notice of a meeting at No. 519 Grove street, Manhattan, and two transfers showing he and another person had ridden on a Broadway car Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Moran, of St. Mary's Hospital, Jamaica, said the man had been murdered before midnight. Coroner Amiel ordered the body taken to Everitt's undertaking room in Jamaica.

Acting Capt. Madigan, of the Jamaica police, learned that two Italians had been seen in Van Sicklen's Woods and he believes they were seeking a convenient spot to which their intended victim could be lured. The two men were seen early last evening in the woods with a third man.

The victim is about forty-two years old, five feet seven inches in height and weighing about 140 pounds. He had dark hair and mustache, and was slightly bald. He wore a black suit, lace shoes, white shirt with blue dots and white socks.

MARIE DRESSLER IS HOME AGAIN

But She Declares that January
Will Find Her Starring,
Perhaps in England.

After having won the gratitude of the entire first cabin by bushing the smoking room pest, Miss Marie Dressler arrived to-day on the Red Star liner Zealand, in response to a cablegram from Joe Weber telling her to return on the first steamer. She announced that she will end her contract with him Dec. 31 and will then star in musical comedy, perhaps with George Edwards, the London manager, who has offered her an English engagement.

The Zealand's passage was unusually uneventful, although the plump actress did much weeping when last night, as she was one of the most enthusiastic of the twelve women who entered the ladies' potage race in the final spirit. She said the after-dinner show was a prize, too, but it was the booty prize of a box of hair balm.

DEFIED CORONER TO PROTECT BOYS.

For three months Mrs. Roman, of No. 1324 Third avenue, defied Coroner Harburger, and today the Coroner commended her defiance.

Dannie Roman, six years old, and his two brothers engaged in a stone-throwing contest in their back yard. Dannie was struck on the head and died in the Presbyterian Hospital, Mrs. Roman saw the stone thrown and was possibly the only one who did.

Coroner Harburger summoned her to appear at the inquest. She refused. The Coroner threatened to lock her up. She defied him. He postponed the inquest and sent another summons. This too was ignored, and for three months the inquest has been postponed from week to week. To-day the Coroner decided to go ahead, and instructing his jury, said:

"While I should condemn Mrs. Roman, I cannot blame her. We cannot expect a mother who has her children to testify against them. Her grief has already been great and I would suggest that when the inquest is held I did not intend it should kill Dannie."

ROOSEVELT LEAVES OYSTER BAY OCT. 1.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Sept. 4.—President Roosevelt will leave Sagamore Hill for Washington Oct. 1. Three days later he will make a flying trip to Harrisburg and York, Pa., where he will deliver speeches.

The date of his departure from Oyster Bay was announced to-day.

GOT A ROPE TO LYNCH NEGRO ON STATEN ISLAND

Four Friends of Man Shot Prepared to Avenge Him.

Charles Curry, twenty-seven years old, of No. 16 Monroe avenue, Tompkinsville, S. I., was standing in front of a hotel at the foot of Arrietta street, Tompkinsville, early to-day when James Marline, a negro, from No. 43 West Sixty-second street, Manhattan, came along. The negro had been drinking, but whether that was the cause of the row into which he got with Curry no body knows.

From words the two men progressed to blows. Marline was the better fighter. He knocked the white man down, got astride of him and then, according to Curry's account, drew a revolver, poked the muzzle against Curry's side and fired.

As Curry collapsed under him the negro got up and ran. Four friends of Curry arrived at that moment. Curry gasped that he had been shot and pointed to the vanishing negro. The four men ran down the fugitive after a chase of six blocks. They dragged him back to where his victim lay.

As soon as Curry, who was barely conscious, had identified the negro as his assailant, the four captors decided to hang Marline off-hand. Three of them took the negro to the jail, while the fourth, who was a doctor, took him to the hospital. The negro was on his way back to his home when he was shot.

They sent Curry in an ambulance to the Smith Infirmary and locked the negro up. The surgeons probed for the bullet, but it would not reach it. His condition is serious.

MOTORMAN HELD FOR KILL NG MAN.

Thomas Schluter, a Third avenue motorman, whose car ran down and killed John Kenny, at No. 181 East Ninety-first street, on July 6, was today held for trial on a charge of gross carelessness by Coroner Harburger's jury. He was committed to the Tombs.

Several witnesses testified that Schluter was running his car at top speed and gave Kenny, who was thirty-five years old, no opportunity to get out of his way.

FRENCH BISHOPS MEET FOR ACTION ON CHURCH LAW

Send Message to Pope
Pius Saying They Hope to Fix Amicable Plan.

PARIS, Sept. 4.—A meeting of all the French bishops and archbishops was opened here to-day and excited intense interest, owing to the fact that the prelates will decide whether the break between the Church and State is positive, or whether it is possible to find a way of obeying the law as well as preserving the Church's interests.

The number of distinguished ecclesiastics attending is not certain, but it is believed that eighty bishops are in attendance, under the Presidency of Cardinal Richard, the Archbishop of Paris.

The deliberations, which are strictly secret, are held in the Hall of the Archbishop, where the first meeting of bishops and archbishops occurred, and at which the latter was addressed to the Pope which led to the recent Papal encyclical.

The session is expected to last four days.

After the preliminary meeting to-day, the prelates and bishops addressed a lengthy telegram to the Pope, informing him that they had assembled in order to consider every means recognized by the law for the proper organization of religion in France.
